CLASS NOTES

As all of you know, the incredible gang that makes up the cast of SAVED BY THE BELL are as famous in their real lives as in their fictional ones. Everyone seems to know that Mark-Paul Gosselaar is Zack, Tiffany-Amber Thiessen is Kelly, Mario Lopez is Slater, Lark Voorhies is Lisa, Dustin Diamond is Screech, Elizabeth Berkley is Jessie and Dennis Haskins is Mr. Belding.

Guess that's why our office is piled high with letters asking a world of various questions concerning America's top teen-age favorites. So without much further ado, let's see if we can't tell you a little about each of them.

Mark-Paul claims to be quite different from Zack, the preppy schemer he plays. "Zack is unpredictable and daring," says Mark-Paul, "always conning to get what he wants or helping someone else get out of a sticky situation. I'm much more shy and would never try the scams that he does." Still he adds with a smile, "But I am learning a lot from the character."

On the other hand, Tiffani brings a lot of her own personality to the role of Kelly, Bayside High's class beauty. Kelly is "outgoing and enjoys sports, hanging out with her friends and helping other people." Tiffani points out about her TV character. But this fabulous looking former model, who won the 1987 Miss Junior America Title and the 1988 Teen Magazine Model Search Award, thinks of herself as more of a fashion trend-setter. "I'm more clothes-conscious than Kelly," she says. "Maybe even a clothes horse."

Mario plays Slater, the captain of the Bayside High football team, whom he describes as a "world-wise chauvinist who is also very emotional." A dancer since he was three, Mario is an accomplished wrestler, with many championships, as well as enough of an athlete to have been a trapeze performer on "Circus of the Stars." Add to that...Mario plays the drums and speaks fluent Spanish.

Dustin says, "I'm a lot like my character." And he describes Screech as "a slapstick comedian who does weird things; he gets hit by lightning or falls into trashcans." Having begun his career, at the age of eight, as a human mannequin in a San Francisco department store, Dustin hasn't stopped moving since. Feature films, TV, commercials, stage performances and now a star in this hit series. And he's only fourteen.

Lark sees a lot of herself in Lisa, the spunky fashion-minded ingenue who loves to shop and gossip. "She's a lot like me when it comes to her passion for clothes and shopping," she says. "but I'm not so much of a busybody." Surprisingly, Lark describes herself as a tomboy who likes rough-housing with the boys, playing football and basketball and performing gymnastics. "Working in a TV series," she adds, "teaches me about responsibility and a taste of what it's like in the real working world."

"Jessie's probably a bit too serious, but she can't help it," says Elizabeth about the young feminist she plays, who's a scholastic overachiever, concerned with environmental and social issues. Modeling since the age of 13, she's appeared in many TV series and films, stage productions and as a dancer in several productions of the Dance Detroit company.

Dennis describes the hapless but likeable principal, Mr. Belding, as "a happy-go-lucky authority figure who loves his job and the kids. And while the kids lead me to believe that I'm always in control," he goes on, "it's seldom the case." Having originated the role of Mr. Belding on the TV series, "Good Morning, Miss Bliss," Dennis once served as a music manager, agent and concert promoter with such acts as Leon Russell, Tom Jones, Greg Allman and Blood Sweat and Tears.

Next time we'll be back with more news and hopefully some mail from you out there. Let us know what you think of SAVED BY THE BELL, the comic book. Write us at: Class Notes, Saved By the Bell, Harvey Comics, 100 Wilshire Blvd., Santa Monica, Ca. 90401.

NEXT ISSUE: "A PREGNANT IDEA!" BABY, YOU DON'T WANT TO MISS THIS ONE!

It seems that we have brand new exciting news to announce almost every month these days, and this month is no exception.

If you take a look at the Harvey Buyers Guide in this issue—And you should never skip that page!—you'll notice that the first issue of BEETLE BAILEY arrives on newsstands this month. We spoke about it last time, but now here comes Mort Walker's laugh riot in all his glory and with all his weird and whacky friends. This is certainly America's favorite GI. Believe me, G. I. Joe was never this funny—and probably never this real. Don't miss a single installment of BEETLE BAILEY. It's a series you'll want to read and re-read and make a permanent part of your collection.

This month will also feature the arrival of the first of Harvey's hilarious and mischievous Misses. (We'll tell you about two more of them next time.) LITTLE AUDREY makes her funtastic return in our August collection of titles, and she's someone you'll surely want to see.

You've enjoyed her on TV for years. She once had her own daily newspaper comic strip. And now, after too long an absence from comic books, here's LITTLE AUDREY again. Together with her pals, Melvin and Tiny, and in some of the wildest dream sequences you'll ever want to see, Audrey is back in a series of zany adventures that you won't want to miss. Yeah, she's a miss you won't want to miss!

We're also starting a series of super-sized comics this month that we call BIG BOOKS. FELIX, TOM & JERRY, and CASPER begin this bargain brigade of 48-page comic books for only $1.95! The BIG BOOKS will contain almost double the amount of stories of our $1.25 comic books for only 70 cents more. You don't have to be a computer head to figure out what a great idea that is. Look for them and ask for them...that's more Harvey for less money. And you can't beat that!

By the way, we've received a lot of mail about our recent column paying tribute to Warren Kremer, the most famous of all Harvey artists(and one of the greatest of all comic artists!). We were so pleased to learn how many of you wanted to know about this superb artist—and also how many of you already did know about him and did recognize the extraordinary role he's played in comics history.

Well, just to let you know, we'll soon be telling you about some more of those unsung writers and artists who have made Harvey Comics the great comic book company it's been and continues to be. Look for them. I think you'll enjoy their stories.

And keep those letters and comments coming to us. We love hearing from you.

See you next time.

ZACK AND HIS FRIENDS AT BAYSIDE HIGH ARE PUTTING ON A CIRCUS. MISTER BELDING, THE SCHOOL PRINCIPAL, IS THE RINGMASTER, BUT HE'S UNABLE TO DO HIS JOB. HIS LIST CONTAINING THE NAMES OF THE PERFORMERS AND THEIR ACTS IS LOST ON A PAGE OF LETTERS. CAN YOU HELP HIM FIND THEM? (THE NAMES ARE WRITTEN UP, DOWN, ACROSS, DIAGONALLY AND TWO ARE EVEN WRITTEN BACKWARDS.)
